2. MEMBERSHIP AND MEMBERSHIP OBLIGATIONS

2.1 NATIONS – ACCEPTANCE OF OPERATIONAL RULES

- 2.1.1 All Nations which participate in any Relevant Competition governed by these Operational Rules are deemed, by acceptance of the invitation, to be bound by the Operational Rules, the terms of any agreement entered into by the Tournament Director with the RLEF and the Laws of the Game, and accept the jurisdiction of the RLEF Executive and Tournament Director.
- 2.1.2 A copy of the Laws of the Game and the Operational Rules applicable to the Relevant Competition shall be sent to each of the intended participating Nations by the relevant Tournament Director prior to that Nation's entry in such Relevant Competition being accepted.
- 2.1.3 Each Nation, by becoming and remaining a Member or Observer, agrees to observe the RLEF's Anti-Doping Rules, Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Rules, Safeguarding Policy, Diversity and Anti-Racism Policies, Respect Policy and any other rules and policies that may from time to time be adopted by the RLEF through the Board and shall ensure that each of their members, employees, officials, volunteers and similar shall observe such rules and policies and shall make it a condition of employment or engagement or of participation in any rugby league competition that each such members, employees, officials, volunteers or similar shall observe such rules and policies.

2.2 APPLICABLE LAWS

- 2.2.1 All Nations which participate in any Relevant Competition or any Game under the jurisdiction of the RLEF, as organised by a Tournament Director or Executive, are required to act in accordance with all applicable laws. Each Nation agrees that the RLEF Tournament Director or Executive shall be entitled to take any action and/or make such orders as it considers appropriate. To do otherwise would knowingly allow a Nation to breach any applicable laws, even where such behaviour is not prohibited through a strict interpretation of these Operational Rules.

2.3 PLAYERS, SPECTATORS AND OFFICIALS TO OBSERVE OPERATIONAL RULES

2.3.1 Each Nation agrees that all players, officials and spectators are only allowed to take part in or attend Matches or be involved in the business of or the conduct of playing matters at any Nation on condition that they observe the Operational Rules. Each Nation agrees to ensure that these Operational Rules are enforced and observed by players, officials and spectators.

2.4 DELEGATION OF RESPONSIBILITIES TO TOURNAMENT DIRECTOR

2.4.1 The day to day running of the Relevant Competitions will be delegated to the relevant Tournament Directors. The Tournament Director will have the power to make decisions consistent with these Operational Rules. In the event of an incident falling outside of these rules the decision will be referred to the Executive.

2.4.2 At all times the RLEF will retain ultimate jurisdiction over the running of any Relevant Competition and shall maintain the right to impose sanction upon any Nation or person subject to the Operational Rules at its own discretion.

2.5 AMENDMENTS

2.5.1 Any amendments to these Operational Rules shall be proposed and discussed by the RLEF. The Executive will have the overall control to approve any changes before being presented to the Board.

2.6 MINIMUM STANDARDS - GROUNDS / GROUND SAFETY

2.6.1 Each nation shall ensure that at all times its ground complies with any minimum requirements or entry criteria specified to play in a relevant competition and in accordance with the laws of the game.

2.6.2 Notwithstanding the provisions set out above, the RLEF shall have the power to make, any additional rules and regulations relating to the standard of grounds or any other matter whatsoever which can vary according to the Tier of competition of the Nation at a particular time.

2.6.3 Each Nation is responsible for the behaviour of its own supporters.

2.6.4 Without prejudice to any other provision of these Operational Rules, the Nation shall ensure that its ground and facilities comply with all regulations, statutes or any other rules which have the force of law in the country in which the Nation plays its home Matches.

- 2.6.5 Each Nation shall comply with all relevant Health & Safety legislation and discharge any duty of care including but not limited to complying with and implementing any guidance notes and resources provided by the RLEF.
- 2.6.6 Every Nation shall meet any other standards specified under the terms of their Relevant Competition.

2.7 FINANCIAL MATTERS

- 2.7.1 Nations will be liable for any competition fees due to the Tournament Director or payable under the terms of their entry or participation criteria.
- 2.7.2 It is mandatory for all Nations to ensure they have the relevant Public Liability and Personal Accident insurance in place. This provides cover for the Nation, Players, Volunteers and Coaches.
- 2.7.3 As per Member and / or Observer criteria, Nations will need to provide accounts or suitable financial records to the RLEF in the format specified.

2.8 RIGHTS, BROADCASTING & SPONSORSHIP

- 2.8.1 The Nations agree that the RLEF shall have the right and power to enter into all forms of sponsorship, advertising, broadcasting and other commercial contracts relating directly to any Relevant Competition. The Nations agree to grant the RLEF and its partners reasonable access to their facilities in order to exercise such rights

3. COMPETITION

3.1 ADMINISTRATION

- 3.1.1 The Tournament Directors shall be governed by the RLEF under the terms of these Operational Rules.
- 3.1.2 The Tournament Directors will fix dates upon which Matches are to be played and deal with all matters connected with or arising out of the Matches.

3.2 START AND END OF COMPETITIONS

- 3.2.1 The RLEF will determine the date of commencement of the Competition and the date on which it shall cease.
- 3.2.2 The Tournament Directors will have responsibility for determining the programme of fixtures.

3.3 MATCHES

- 3.3.1 All matches will be played under the laws of the game.
- 3.3.2 Matches will be played for the following durations:
 - a) Adult – 80 minutes played in two equal halves with an interval of ten minutes.
 - b) Under 18 - 70 minutes played in two equal halves with an interval of ten minutes.
 - c) Under 16 - 60 minutes played in two equal halves with an interval of ten minutes.
 - d) Under 14 - 50 minutes played in two equal halves with an interval of ten minutes.
 - e) Under 12 - 40 minutes played in two equal halves with an interval of ten minutes.
- 3.3.3 The Tournament Directors shall liaise with the RLEF Match Officials Manager in order to appoint Match Officials.
- 3.3.4 Any Nation failing to fulfil a Match on the scheduled date, for any reason which a Tournament Director considers unsatisfactory, shall be guilty of Misconduct.

3.4 DISPUTES

- 3.4.1 All disputes relating to the venue, time and date of any Match or any other disputes relating to a Match shall be determined by a Tournament Director or Executive in its absolute discretion, unless otherwise provided for in these Operational Rules.

3.5 GROUNDS UNFIT FOR PLAY

- 3.5.1 In the event of the home Nation reasonably judging that its ground will not be fit for play, owing to adverse weather conditions or other cause, the Nation must comply with the Competition Rules with regard to calling the fixture off.

If there is no chance of it being played, then that decision must be communicated immediately to the visiting Nation, appointed Match Official and the Relevant Competition's Administrator.

3.6 OTHER REASONS

- 3.6.1 If for any other reason a Game is due to be postponed, Nations must contact the Tournament Director as soon as possible.

3.7 CONTACTING OPPONENTS

- 3.7.1 It is the responsibility of the home Nation, during the week preceding a Game, to contact both its opponents and the relevant Match Official regarding team colours and ground directions.

3.8 OBJECTIONS TO RESULTS

- 3.8.1 A Nation wishing to object to the result of a Match shall send a letter or email to the Tournament Director or Executive and to the opposing Nation within 24 hours of the termination of the Match stating the full grounds on which the objection is made..
- 3.8.2 The Tournament Director will hear the objection and may decline to consider any matter not stated in respect of the above. For the avoidance of doubt, a Nation shall not be entitled to object to a result on the grounds of a Match Official's decision(s), and the imposition of a fine or other penalty on a Nation pursuant to these Operational Rules and shall not preclude a Nation from objecting to a result of a Match under this operational rule.

3.9 PLAYING STRIP

- 3.9.1 All Nations shall submit to the Tournament Director the colours of their playing strip and their alternative playing strip for the forthcoming Competition, by the date stated in the Competition rules
- 3.9.2 In the event of a clash of colours the away team must wear an alternative strip, although both Nations should seek mutual agreement prior to the Match

3.10 BALLS

- 3.10.1 The balls to be used in Matches shall be submitted to and approved by the Match Official before the commencement of the Match, and must be of the type specified by and comply with the requirements of the Competition and the Laws of the Game from time to time.

3.11 MEDICAL REQUIREMENTS

- 3.11.1 Each Nation shall endeavour to ensure that a registered and practicing qualified first aider, (holding such qualifications as the RLEF may direct from time to time), shall be present at every Match.

- 3.11.2 Such first aider shall make themselves known to the Match Official before the start of any Match and shall remain for a minimum of 15 minutes after the end of the Game and shall speak directly with a designated Official from both Nations, if necessary, to ensure that the correct reporting paperwork is completed.
- 3.11.3 For Cup, Shield and Bowl matches a doctor and ambulance must be present. Unless otherwise agreed, this doctor must be provided by the home team.
- 3.11.4 In the event of any injuries or accidents on the field of play, it is the Nations' responsibility to complete and return any accident/injury report form to the RLEF within seven days of the said incident.
- 3.11.5 Each Nation must record the names of the medical officials who attend each Match in such format as the RLEF/ Tournament Director shall require from time to time.

3.12 SUBMISSION OF FORMS

- 3.12.1 Each Nation must submit information in such format as the Tournament Director shall reasonably direct from time to time.
- 3.12.2 It shall be the duty of the Referee to complete and forward to the Tournament Director the score sheet, team sheet, dismissal reports and reports of any incidents that occur on the match day, (on or off the pitch), by such means as the RLEF shall direct from time to time by no later than 9.00 am on the first or second working day following the Match.

3.13 KIT & EQUIPMENT INSPECTIONS

- 3.13.1 Each Nation shall make all of its Players available for kit and equipment checks before the Match and at any other time on match day as reasonably required by an appointed Match Official.
- 3.13.2 No Player shall wear any protective equipment, footwear or other garment in any Match, unless it has been approved in advance by the RLEF.

3.14 LATE START

- 3.14.1 Each Nation shall ensure that its team is ready to take to the field before the designated kick off time as and when directed by the Match Officials. The Nation at fault for the late start of any Match may be guilty of Misconduct and may be punished by way of a fine or otherwise.

3.15 POST-MATCH REPORTS TO BE SENT TO THE RLEF

- 3.15.1 In addition to any reports due pursuant to other provisions of these Operational Rules, each Match Official shall ensure that they provide immediately to the Tournament Director a full and comprehensive report of any incident which occurs before, during or after any Match including, (but not by way of limitation):

- a) a breach of any of the Operational Rules;
- b) crowd misbehaviour;
- c) misbehaviour of Nation Officials;

3.15.2 Any other matter which may bring the Game into disrepute and / or which may be prejudicial to the interests of the Game.

4 INTERNATIONALS / REPRESENTATIVE PROTOCOLS

4.1 THE NATIONS AGREE THAT:

- 4.1.1 All official Matches must be approved by the RLEF and the Participating Nations' NGBs.
- 4.1.2 A Player will give priority to such Representative Matches over any other Match, including, but not by way of limitation, cup ties and league matches in their domestic league.
- 4.1.3 The RLIF's international eligibility rules govern all Matches (if they are to factor in the world rankings) and Competitions

4.2 ELIGIBILITY

- 4.2.1 Only national teams that have verified their relevant squads' eligibility, and are representing Member or Observer Nations of the RLEF, can use the name of the state.
- 4.2.2 If a squad's eligibility has not been verified they must use the XIII suffix or other name, such as 'President's XIII' or 'Select' etc.
- 4.2.3 A Player who plays for a Nation XIII team is not subject to the RLIF international eligibility rules.
- 4.2.4 Nations participating in the Cup or Shield must have their eligibility verified prior to each Match in the Relevant Competition.

5. PLAYERS

5.1 PURPOSE

5.1.1 The purpose of these rules shall be:

- a) To ensure the moral and physical welfare and proper treatment of Players within the appropriate boundaries of applicable laws;
- b) To ensure the integrity and fairness of competitions;

5.2.2 These regulations are to be interpreted and applied by reference to and in a manner that advances their purpose, as set out above, and when an issue arises that is not expressly provided for in these Operational Rules, the interpretation and application shall be consistent with the purpose of these rules.

5.2 BOUND BY OPERATIONAL RULES

5.2.1 A Player shall be bound by the Operational Rules upon being named by his NGB in the national team squad for any Match or Competition.

5.3 ADULT PLAYERS

5.3.1 A Player is eligible to play Open Age Rugby League on attaining the age of 16.

5.3.2 Any Player under the age of 18 requires a parent / guardian signature when playing in an Open Age match

5.4 JUNIOR PLAYERS

5.4.1 Age groups are determined by a Player remaining within the relevant age bracket on 1 January of the year of the Relevant Competition. For the avoidance of doubt, and by example, to play in an U16 Competition in 2012, the earliest the Player's birthday can be is 1st January 1996.

5.4.2 Official RLEF age brackets are U12, U14, U16, U18 and U20

5.4.3 Players must validate their age, provide proof - e.g. copy of Birth Certificate accompanied by a photo ID, or recognised passport. The proof of ID must be certified by the coach and Tournament Director.

6 OFFICIALS

6.1 QUALIFICATIONS

- 6.1.1 Members shall only register relevant coaching staff that have the appropriate qualifications.
- 6.1.2 It is the responsibility of the Nation to ensure that staff have the appropriate qualifications and that those qualifications are up to date.

6.2 OFFICIAL REGISTER

- 6.2.1 The RLEF shall maintain a register of Officials and will be entitled to impose a sanction if it reasonably believes that any Official has or would:
- a) Bring the Game into disrepute or adversely affect the integrity of any Relevant Competition;
 - b) Allow a person to participate who is under a relevant suspension or ban imposed by the RLEF / Relevant Competition or another Governing Body of sport in any part of the World;
 - c) Allow a person to work in a role without the appropriate qualifications or other requirements for that role as set out by the RLEF / Relevant Competition from time to time;
 - d) Allow a person to work in a role where they may pose a danger to children and vulnerable adults.
- 6.2.2 Prior to reaching its decision, the RLEF will allow the person concerned to make written representations as to why their registration should be accepted and such representations will be considered in reaching the decision. The person concerned shall have the right to appeal the decision of the RLEF to the Board.

6.3 MATCH OFFICIALS BOUND BY THE RLEF OPERATIONAL RULES

- 6.3.1 Prior to the commencement of each Competition, the Match Official Manager shall compile a list of Match Officials who are qualified to officiate in each of the Relevant Competitions according to the Tier of the competition.
- 6.3.2 All Match Officials and anyone registered on the list shall be bound by the Operational Rules and agree to officiate at matches in accordance with the Laws of the Game.
- 6.3.3 In any event, all Match Officials shall be examined as to their suitability and fitness to officiate in accordance with such standards as the RLEF may set out from time to time.
- 6.3.4 The RLEF will have the ultimate discretion to decide whether a Match Official is able to officiate in any match.

6.4 SPONSORSHIP/KIT

6.4.1 The RLEF shall have the exclusive right and power to enter into all forms of sponsorship, advertising and other commercial contracts relating to Match Officials, (in particular, those relating to their kit, flags and other equipment).

6.5 REPORTS & FORMS

6.5.1 A Match Official wishing to report a Player or other Person subject to the Operational Rules for Misconduct shall do so in the format laid down by the Relevant Competition from time to time. Such reports shall contain the full name and address, (if provided), of the Player.

6.5.2 The Referee shall ensure that after each match, all relevant forms and completed reports are made and sent to the Relevant Competitions Administrator.

6.6 MATCH OFFICIALS' INTERESTS

6.6.1 A Match Official shall inform his / her local Match Official Development Officer in writing of any personal and/or commercial interest or connection he/she has or obtains with any Nation. No Official shall have a right of appeal if his/her name has been removed from the said list.

6.7 ILLEGAL PAYMENTS

6.7.1 It shall be the duty of each Match Official to ensure that he / she does not receive any form of illegal payment, gift or any other form of inducement in relation to officiating at any match.

7. ON FIELD COMPLIANCE PROCEDURES

7.1 JURISDICTION

Any potential disciplinary offence by a Player (hereafter, or other Person subject to the Operational Rules) in a match involving RLEF Members or affiliates and which is not governed by specific tournament regulations will be dealt with using the procedure below.

7.2 DISMISSALS & CITING

All players sent off from the field of play (red card) will be automatically referred to the RLEF Disciplinary Committee for review accompanied by all match officials reports and any accompanying evidence.

If a Participating Nation wishes to cite a Player, this must be indicated to the Tournament Director (or nominated representative) within 24-hours of the conclusion of the game. The Tournament Director will then inform the Disciplinary Committee of the citation.

7.3 DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE COMPOSITION

Each member of the Committee will have an equal vote and no member can abstain. One member of the Committee, as determined by the members, will act as Chairman of the Committee.

7.4 APPEALS COMMITTEE COMPOSITION

Each member of the Committee will have an equal vote and no member can abstain. One member of the Committee, as determined by the members, will act as Chairman of the Committee.

Once convened, the Committee will conduct the Appeals Tribunal in English. A translator will be allowed to be present if required. The hearing may be conducted in person or via tele-conference.

7.5 COMMITTEE PRINCIPLES

The members of the RLEF Disciplinary Committee and Appeals Committee must:

- act in good faith;
- deal with cases consistently and fairly in accordance with standard procedures;
- deal with each case equitably compared with other cases;
- make the decision on evidence relevant to the issue;
- use standards which are reasonable and appropriate to the specific case;
- not allow extraneous considerations to affect the decision

The Committees will make any decision based on the guidelines in operation at the time and bearing in mind the principles of natural justice.

7.6 OPTIONS AVAILABLE TO THE DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

The Committee shall determine:

- Whether an Offence has been committed
- What the Offence was
- Where a Player has been found guilty of an Offence, the appropriate sanction

If the Committee does not consider that it can reach a decision on the evidence before it, it may refer the incident for further investigation.

7.7 SANCTIONS

If the Disciplinary Committee finds the Player guilty of the Charge or if the Player enters a guilty plea it is the function of the Committee to determine the penalty to be imposed. A penalty may be imposed in the form of:

- A specified number of Matches; and / or
- A specified number of representative rugby league matches; and / or
- A specified number of competitive rugby league matches.

For the avoidance of doubt, in respect of any penalty in the form of a suspension, that suspension will be expressed by the Committee in terms of a specified number of Matches or in exceptional circumstances a period of time.

A player's suspension shall take effect from the day following the Tribunal at which the suspension was imposed except in the case of period or permanent suspensions which shall take effect immediately. The following games shall count towards a Players' suspension provided that he is otherwise eligible to play in the games concerned:

- (a) Representative games in which the suspended player at the time at which the suspension is imposed has been selected to play or be part of the squad. For this purpose, "squad" means those players selected to be on duty for a particular game or to be part of the official playing party for a match, tournament or tour; and
- (b) All games in which the player's club is expected to field its first team in local domestic championship matches, with the exception of nines or other similar tournaments; and
- (c) Any other game that the RLEF Disciplinary Committee expressly provide shall count towards the suspension.

If a player is suspended for a stated number of matches or is given permanent suspension, the suspended player shall not play in any game or enter the pitch, bench or surrounding area in any capacity until his suspension has been terminated.

In exceptional circumstances involving a Charge of Offensive Language; Disputing Decision; Contrary Conduct involving a Referee or Match Official; or Detrimental Conduct involving a Referee or Match Official, a monetary fine in the form of such sum or such proportion of the Player's match fees may be levied on the player on terms that the RLEF Disciplinary Committee or Appeals Committee deem appropriate, and not exceeding £300.

7.8 APPEALS

- All Players have a right of appeal to a decision made by the RLEF Disciplinary Committee
- Notice of appeal should be made in writing to the RLEF General Manager or appropriate Regional Director in writing within 48 hours of the written adjudication.
- Any appeal would be heard by the RLEF Appeals Committee as described above.
- Players who wish to appeal a decision made by the Appeals Committee should notify the RLEF General Manager or appropriate Regional Director within 48-hours of the written adjudication; the appeal will then be heard by the Rugby League International Federation
- Any person who sat on the original Disciplinary Committee shall not sit on the Appeals Tribunal.
- Due to logistics it may not be possible for all panel members to be physically in the same location so a telephone hearing may have to be arranged.
- The Appeals Tribunal shall follow an equivalent process to that set out above in relation to the initial Disciplinary Committee.
- No player can play pending an appeal hearing

7.9 APPEALS TRIBUNAL ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS:

The Chairman will determine the order of proceedings; however usually:

- The Chair will read the charge to the Tribunal
- The Chair will explain the procedure
- The Player or his representative will admit or deny the Offence
- The Chair will summarise the case against the Player
- The Player or his representative will present the Player's case
- If the Player denies the Offence the Tribunal will consider whether the Offence was committed and only if the Tribunal find that the Player has committed an Offence will it then go on to consider the appropriate sanction The Panel will consider all evidence available to them before making a decision.
- If the Player admits the Offence or if the Tribunal decides that an Offence was committed then the Player will have the opportunity to make submissions to the Tribunal in relation to the appropriate Sanction. The Tribunal will then determine the appropriate sanction as set out in 1.7 Sanction, above.

All parties will be given an equal chance to make submissions.

7.10 EVIDENCE

The Committees will consider all available evidence to them. This will usually include a match official's written report, which the match official must ensure is completed and forwarded to the RLEF within 48-hrs of the end of the match, and any evidence supplied by the Player facing a charge.

The Committees will consider DVD evidence where possible and may open and adjourn a case if DVD evidence is not available at the time. The Disciplinary Committees will not usually hear verbal evidence from witnesses, but the Appeals Committee may.

7.11 ADJUDICATIONS

The Chair of the Disciplinary Committee will deliver the sentence in writing to the Player and his parent organisation within 24-hours of the Committee reaching its verdict.

The Chair of the Appeals Committee will read the Tribunal's adjudications at the conclusion of the meeting and a written version will be available within 5 days.

In the case of both Disciplinary Committee and Appeals Committee hearings, the adjudication will:

- Include all aggravating and/or mitigating factors taken into consideration
- Explain any deviation from the sentencing guidelines
- Give clear and full reasons for the decision

The Player charged has no right of access to the deliberations of the Disciplinary Committee or Appeals Committee.

8 MISCONDUCT

8.1 BEHAVIOUR CONSIDERED MISCONDUCT

All players, coaches and officials acknowledge that their behaviour shall at all times be of the highest standard. All Members and Observers shall ensure that their players, coaches and officials are bound by the provisions of these Operational Rules or any relevant Competition Rules relating to Misconduct.

A player, coach or official may be guilty of misconduct if he/she:

- (a) commits a serious or persistent breach of these Operational Rules;
- (b) without limiting para (a) above, commits a breach of any of the rules listed at 8.6 below;
- (c) engages in conduct which is prejudicial to the interests of the RLEF or the game of Rugby League or the RLIF. (This includes negatives comments in the media);
- (d) is convicted of a criminal offence by any court of competent jurisdiction;
- (e) fails, to comply with any decision of the Tournament Director or Disciplinary Committee.

8.2 PROCEEDINGS FOR BREACH

In any case where a team, player or official has failed to comply with a provision of these Operational Rules, proceedings may be taken against that team, player or official for that failure, and a penalty imposed.

If any person reasonably believes that any player or official is guilty of misconduct he or she must immediately inform the RLEF in writing setting out all relevant details of the alleged misconduct.

The RLEF shall investigate or appoint someone to investigate any allegation of any breach. The RLEF will investigate or have the power to appoint investigators to investigate all allegations of misconduct and decide whether there is a case to answer. If he believes there is a case to answer he will forward the case to a Misconduct Panel.

8.3 MISCONDUCT PANEL

The Misconduct Panel will be appointed by the RLEF and will consist of a Chairman with appropriate experience in sports administration or legal qualifications and two side members with experience in the game.

The RLEF shall be entitled to appoint a representative to present the case on its behalf. In every case, the RLEF (or its appointed representative) bears the onus of proof on the balance of probabilities.

In every case, it shall be the Misconduct Panel's task to decide every question of law, evidence and / or procedure. The Chairman shall in his absolute discretion give such instructions or directions as he thinks fit to the Misconduct Panel as to matters of law, evidence and / or procedure. The Chairman may give whatever directions and make all such orders as he in his absolute discretion deems fit for the conduct, expedition and resolution of matters heard by the Misconduct Panel.

8.4 HEARING

The hearing shall take place in accordance with such procedures that the Chairman shall think fit. However any person appearing before the panel may be accompanied by a solicitor or by such other person as he/she may require.

The Misconduct Panel shall decide whether the case is proven and if so may impose a penalty which may involve a caution and/or fine and/or costs of a player, official and/or team or the suspension or expulsion of a player or official.

Where the penalty imposed on a player or official includes a fine and/or costs these shall be paid by the country of that player or official.

8.5 APPEALS

Any player, official or team who is found guilty by the Misconduct Panel shall have the right of appeal, such appeal to be made in writing and to be lodged with the RLEF General Manager within 48 hours of the decision of the Panel. The filing of an appeal shall not operate to stay the original decision of the original Misconduct Panel.

An Appeals and Disputes Committee shall hear and determine appeals by way of a review. A hearing before the Appeals and Disputes Committee shall not proceed de novo.

The Appeals and Disputes Committee will be appointed by the RLEF and will consist of a Chairman with appropriate experience in sports administration or legal qualifications and two side members with experience in the Game (no individual who sat on the Misconduct Panel who initially considered the case shall be entitled to sit on the Appeals and Disputes Committee).

On the hearing of an appeal, the Appeals and Disputes Committee may:

- Affirm the determination of the Misconduct Panel;
- Set aside the determination of the Misconduct Panel;
- Vary the determination of the Misconduct Panel.

Any decision of the Appeals and Disputes Committee shall be final and conclusive.

8.6 MISCONDUCT OFFENCES

(a) Inducements

It shall be an offence for any player, coach, official or match official to offer or receive a bonus or any form of inducement to or from any other player, coach, official or referee whether directly or indirectly and by whatever means to win, lose or draw a match or alter or influence their decision in a match.

(b) Betting

It shall be an offence for any player, official, coach or match official to place, accept or lay a bet on any match in the Tournament or to provide information or do any other act or thing which is calculated to or does assist any other person involved in any of the foregoing.

(c) Criticism of Match Officials
